		Points	A loan that is secured by real estate and that is in a principal amount >= $16,800 and has a maturity >= 60 months, may contain a provision permitting discount points, if the loan does not provide a loan yield in excess of the maximum rate of interest. Discount points and appraisal fees may not be included in the principal amount of a loan secured by an interest in real estate when the loan is a refinancing for the purpose of bringing the refinanced loan current and is made within 24 months of the original date of the refinanced loan. A refinancing is not considered to be for the purpose of bringing the refinanced loan current, if new funds advanced to the customer (not including closing costs or delinquent installments) exceed $1,400 (The $16,800 and $1,400 amount are adjusted on July 1 of even-numbered years).	Minn. Stat. Ann. § 56.131
		Third-Party Fees	Lenders may collect in addition to interest the following additional charges that may be included in the principal amount of the loan: (1) lawful fees and taxes paid to any public officer to record, file, or release security; (2) the following closing costs, if they are bona fide, reasonable in amount, and the costs do not exceed 1% of the principal amount or $520, whichever is greater: (A) fees or premiums for title examination, abstract of title, title insurance, surveys, or similar purposes; (B) fees, if not paid to the lender, an employee of the lender, or a person related to the lender, for preparation of a mortgage, settlement statement, or other documents, fees for notarizing mortgages and other documents, and appraisal fees; (3) the premium for insurance in lieu of perfecting and releasing a security interest to the extent that the premium does not exceed the fees described in item (1) above.	Min. Stat. Ann. § 56.131(2)
	Residential Mortgage Originator	Points	Mortgage loan may not include in the principal amount of any residential mortgage loan all or any portion of any lender fee in an aggregate amount exceeding 5% of the loan amount. This restriction does not apply to residential mortgage loans which are insured or guaranteed by HUD, VA, or FmHA or any successor. "Lender fee" means interest, points, finance charges, fees, and other charges payable in connection with the residential mortgage loan: (1) by the borrower to any residential mortgage originator or to any assignee of any residential mortgage originator; or (2) by the lender to a mortgage broker. "Lender fee" does not include recording fees, mortgage registration taxes, pass-throughs, any amount that is set aside to pay taxes or insurance on any property securing the residential mortgage loan, or other amounts that are paid by any person to any government entity, filing office, or other third party that is not a residential mortgage originator or an assignee of a residential mortgage originator. Conventional Loans: May contain provisions permitting discount points, if the loan does not provide a loan yield in excess of the maximum interest rate. The loan yield is computed using the amount resulting when the discount points are included in the finance charge. Forward commitment fees are not discount points.	Minn. Stat. Ann. §§ 58.137(1); 47.20
		Third-Party Fees	Must not charge a fee for a product or service if not actually provided or misrepresent the amount charged by or paid to a third-party for a product or service. Conventional Loans: interest rate below the maximum interest limit, lenders may collect in addition to the interest, the reasonable charges for actual closing costs regardless of whether the charges are retained by the lender. Permitted actual closing costs include the following: (1) any insurance premiums including but not limited to premiums for title insurance, fire and extended coverage insurance, flood insurance, and private mortgage insurance, but excluding any charges or sums retained by the mortgagee or lender as self-insured retention; (2) abstracting, title examination and search, and examination of public records; (3) the preparation and recording of any or all documents required by law or custom for closing a conventional or cooperative apartment loan; (4) appraisal and survey of real property securing a conventional loan or real property owned by a cooperative apartment corporation of which a share or shares of stock or a membership certificate or certificates are to secure a cooperative apartment loan; (5) a single service charge, which includes: (A) any amounts paid by the borrower and received and retained by the lender for or related to the acquisition, making, refinancing or modification of a conventional or cooperative apartment loan; and (B) any amount received by the lender for making a borrower's interest rate commitment or for making a borrower's loan commitment, whether or not an actual loan follows the commitment; or (6) any charges and fees necessary for or related to the transfer of real property securing a conventional loan or the closing of a loan paid by the borrower and received by any party other than the lender. "Service charge" does not include forward commitment fees. The service charge may not exceed 1% of the original bona fide principal amount of the conventional or cooperative apartment loan, except that in the case of a construction loan, the service charge may not exceed 2% of the original bona fide principal amount of the loan. A lender may not collect from a borrower the additional 1% service charge permitted for a construction loan if it does not perform the service for which the charge is imposed or if third parties perform and charge the borrower for the service for which the lender has imposed the charge. 	Mortgage Lender; Mortgage Broker	Other Charges	The Mortgage Lender Business Statute contains no provision regulating fees and charges. Therefore, a mortgage lender or a mortgage broker may contract for reasonable fees and charges.	S.D. Codified Laws § 54-14-12 et seq.
Tennessee	Industrial Loan and Thrift Company	Attorney Fees	Registrants may also require the payment by the borrower of any reasonable and actual attorneys' fees and other costs incurred in the collection or enforcement of any loan contract.	Tenn. Code Ann. § 45-5-403(6)
		Points	No registrant has the power to charge loan charges other than, or in amounts greater than, the following: a service charge in an amount equal to 4% of the total amount of the loan, which charge may be deducted in advance from the principal of the loan. This service charge shall be in lieu of all other compensation for services, expenses, detriments or commitments directly incident to the loan, except those charges which are otherwise specifically provided in this chapter. This charge is authorized and limited on the basis that it is generally reasonably related to the total costs and expenses which it is designed to cover, and in order to make the amount of such charges more certain and readily ascertainable by such registrants, their borrowers and the commissioner; and to that end, registrants shall not be required to maintain detailed records with respect to the services, expenses, detriments or commitments covered thereby. This charge shall not, however, be imposed on that portion of a loan used to pay any existing loan or part thereof owing by the same borrower or spouse, or both, to the same registrant or any affiliated lender.	Tenn. Code Ann. § 45-5-403
		Third-Party Fees	In the case of open-end credit plans or in the case of loans secured by real property, in lieu of the 4% service charge, registrants may charge borrowers with the actual, bona fide, reasonable expenses, directly incident to the loan, paid or to be paid by the registrant to third parties, including, but not limited to, expenses for title examination or title insurance, surveys, preparation of necessary documents, credit reports and appraisals; Registrants may also charge the borrower with any fees or taxes paid, or to be paid, any public official for filing, recording or releasing any document relating to the loan. In lieu of charging the borrower with any fees for filing or recording any document relating to the loan, registrants may charge the borrower with any premiums payable for insurance in lieu of filing or recording such document; provided, that such premium shall not exceed the current fee for filing or recording such document. Moreover, such sum shall not be charged more than 1 time during any 12-month period; Registrants may also charge an installment maintenance fee of $2.50 per month where the total amount of the loan is > $1,250. No registrant may charge such installment maintenance fee on multiple loans existing at the same time to any 1 borrower. Such installment maintenance fees shall not be deducted in advance. Registrants may, however, include the maximum maintenance fee for the term of the loan in the face amount of the note evidencing that loan; provided, that neither interest, loan charges, delinquent charges nor insurance charges are computed on the amount; and provided further, that any installment maintenance fee due more than 1 month following payment-in-full of the note shall be credited to the note. 	Mortgage Company	Mortgage Broker Fees	Brokerage commissions shall be limited to compensation which is fair and reasonable for the services performed, considering the condition of the money market, the creditworthiness of the borrower, the custom in the market place, the interest rate to be paid, the nature and value of the security, and other relevant factors. Any brokerage/finder fee of 2% or less of the principal amount of the loan will be considered fair and reasonable. Any brokerage/finder fee of 2% or more of the principal amount of the loan will be presumed to be unfair and unreasonable and shall be grounds to revoke the license or registration of such licensee or registrant, unless such licensee or registrant can provide evidence showing that such fee constitutes fair and reasonable compensation.	Tenn. Code Ann. § 47-14-113(c); Tenn. Comp. R. & Regs. 0180-17-.07
		Third-Party Fees	A written contract shall be limited to those loan charges agreed to in that contract; provided, that no such charges may validly be agreed to in such a contract other than those which are fair and reasonable compensation for some expense incurred or to be incurred, or some service rendered or to be rendered, to or on behalf of the borrower, in connection with a particular loan. In any event, no such loan or contract shall include, except as a part of interest, charges for costs indirectly related to that loan or contract, including, but not limited to, overhead of the lender, loan losses, and charges for services performed by officers or employees of the lender unless such services are rendered directly for: (1) inspecting and verifying collateral prior to the loan being made; (2) servicing and verifying the collateral securing the loan; and (3) collection of the loan. If loan charges, commitment fees, or brokerage commissions in excess of those authorized have been paid, the amount of such excess charges, fees, or commissions, may be recovered by action brought by the person paying such excess amounts.	Tenn. Code Ann. §§ 47-14-113(d); 47-14-114
Texas	Mortgage Broker	Points	No mortgage broker or loan officer shall represent to a mortgage applicant that a charge or fee which is payable to the mortgage broker, loan officer or the corporation, partnership or other entity through, or for which the mortgage broker conducts activities is a discount point unless: (1) the mortgage broker or loan officer is the lender in the transaction. The mortgage broker or loan officer is deemed to be the lender if the broker, loan officer, or the company affiliate, is the person or entity to whom the mortgage obligation is initially payable as evidenced on the face of the note or other written evidence of indebtedness; or (2) if the mortgage broker, loan officer, or company affiliate is not the lender, the broker or loan officer demonstrates by clear and convincing evidence that the lender has charged or collected discount point(s) or other fees which the mortgage broker, loan officer, or company affiliate has paid the lender on behalf of the consumer, to buy down the interest rate on a loan and the receipt of the discount points at closing is a reimbursement for the broker, loan officer, or company affiliate's expenditure; or (C) the discount points are retained or charged only in the event the loan closes.	7 Tex. Admin. Code § 80.10(b)(4)
		Third-Party Fees	Before the completion of all services to be performed, a mortgage broker may charge and receive, unless prohibited by law, the following fees for services in assisting a mortgage applicant to obtain a mortgage: (1) a fee to obtain a credit report; (2) a fee for the appraisal of the real estate; (3) a fee for processing a mortgage application; (4) a fee for taking a mortgage application; (5) a fee for automated underwriting; (6) a fee for a courier service; (7) a fee to issue a loan commitment; or (8) a fee for locking in an interest rate. A mortgage broker or loan officer may not charge or receive a fee for locking in an interest rate unless there is a written agreement signed by the mortgage applicant and mortgage broker that contains a statement of whether the fee to lock in the interest rate is refundable and, if so, the terms and conditions necessary to obtain the refund. 		Mortgage Broker Fees	A licensee may agree with the borrower to pay a fee to a mortgage broker that is not owned by the licensee or under common ownership with the licensee and that performed services in connection with the origination of the loan. A licensee may not receive compensation as a mortgage broker in connection with any loan made by the licensee. A licensee or person subject to this chapter cannot receive compensation as both a consumer loan licensee making the loan and as a mortgage broker in the same transaction; When acting as a broker under the act, you are allowed to: (a) charge and collect a broker's fee (loan origination fee not to exceed 4% of the first $20K and 2% thereafter; (b) receive a yield spread premium; and (c) charge a processing fee. When acting as a broker under the act, you are not allowed to: (a) charge or receive fees on discount points; (b) charge or receive a loan origination fee in addition to a broker's fee; or (c) charge or receive an underwriting fee.	WAC 208-620-515(1)(c); 208-620-010; 208-620-565
		Points	In connection with the making of a loan, every licensee may charge the borrower a nonrefundable, prepaid, loan origination fee not to exceed 4% of the first $20K and 2% thereafter of the principal amount of the loan advanced to or for the direct benefit of the borrower, which fee may be included in the principal balance of the loan; Licensee may contract for and receive an annual fee, payable each year in advance, for the privilege of opening and maintaining an open-end loan account. Except as prohibited or limited by this section, the licensee may also contract for and receive on an open-end loan any additional charge permitted by this chapter on other loans, subject to the conditions and restrictions otherwise pertaining to those charges; A licensee may not collect a fee from the borrower for lowering the interest rate unless the interest rate is actually reduced; When acting as a broker under the act, you are not allowed to charge or receive: (a) fees on discount points; (b) a loan origination fee in addition to a broker's fee; or (c) an underwriting fee.	Wash. Rev. Code Ann. §§ 31.04.105(2); 31.04.115(3); WAC 208-620-560(6); 208-620-565(2)
		Third-Party Fees	Every licensee may agree with the borrower for the payment of fees to third parties other than the licensee who provide goods or services to the licensee in connection with the preparation of the borrower's loan, including, but not limited to, credit reporting agencies, title companies, appraisers, structural and pest inspectors, and escrow companies, when such fees are actually paid by the licensee to a third party for such services or purposes and may include such fees in the amount of the loan. However, no charge may be collected unless a loan is made, except for reasonable fees properly incurred in connection with the appraisal of property by a qualified, independent, professional, third-party appraiser selected by the borrower and approved by the lender or in the absence of borrower selection, selected by the lender. A licensee may not charge or collect any fee to be paid to a third-party service provider, in excess of the actual costs paid or to be paid. A licensee may charge the borrower for costs of allowable third-party services at the time of application for the loan or at any time thereafter except as prohibited; A licensee may not collect a document preparation fee, a processing fee or a courier fee unless paid to an unrelated third party and agreed to in advance by the borrower.	Wash. Rev. Code Ann. § 31.04.105(3); WAC 208-620-560(3); 208-620-560(7)
	Mortgage Broker	Mortgage Broker Fees	Should disclose the YSP in the 800 series of lines on the GFE. The YSP must be listed using the words "yield spread premium" and expressed as a dollar amount or dollar amount range.	WAC 208-660-430(5)
	Points	A mortgage broker is prohibited from charging discount points which do not result in a reduction of the interest rate. Some examples of discount point misrepresentations are: (1) charging discount points on the good faith estimate or settlement statement payable to the mortgage broker or any party that is not the actual lender on the residential mortgage loan; (2) charging loan fees or mortgage broker fees that are represented to the borrower as discount points when such fees do not actually reduce the rate on the loan, or reflecting loan origination fees or mortgage broker fees as discount points; or (3) charging discount points that are not mathematically determinable as the same direct reduction of the rate available to any 2 borrowers with the same program and underwriting characteristics on the same date of disclosure.	WAC 208-660-500(3)(e)
	Third-Party Fees	A mortgage broker shall not receive a fee, commission, or compensation of any kind in connection with the preparation, negotiation, and brokering of a residential mortgage loan unless a borrower actually obtains a loan from a lender on the terms and conditions agreed upon by the borrower and mortgage broker; A mortgage broker may: (a) If the mortgage broker has obtained for the borrower a written commitment from a lender for a loan on the terms and conditions agreed upon by the borrower and the mortgage broker, and the borrower fails to close on the loan through no fault of the mortgage broker, charge a fee not to exceed $300 for services rendered, preparation of documents, or transfer of documents in the borrower's file which were prepared or paid for by the borrower if the fee is not otherwise prohibited by the Truth-in-Lending Act; or (b) Solicit or receive fees for 3rd party provider goods or services in advance. Fees for any goods or services not provided must be refunded to the borrower and the mortgage broker may not charge more for the goods and services than the actual costs of the goods or services charged by the third party provider; A loan originator may not charge the borrower a fee, commission, or compensation of any kind in connection with the preparation, negotiation, and brokering of a residential mortgage loan. As a loan originator, you may not be paid any compensation or fees directly by the borrower.	Wash. Rev. Code Ann. § 19.146.070(1); WAC 208-660-155(7); (8); 208-660-300(7); (8)

		Points; Third-Party Fees; Mortgage Broker Fees	In making any primary or subordinate mortgage loan, no licensee may require the borrower to pay, in addition to any periodic interest, combined fees, compensation, or points of any kind to the lender and broker to arrange, originate, evaluate, maintain or service a loan secured by any encumbrance on residential property that exceed, in the aggregate, 6% of the loan amount financed, including any yield spread premium paid by the lender to the broker. Provided that no yield spread premium is permitted for any loan for which the APR exceeds 18% per year on the unpaid balance of the amount financed. If no yield spread premium is charged, the aggregate of fees, compensation or points can be no greater than 5% of the loan amount financed. The financing of the fees and points are permissible and, where included as part of the finance charge, does not constitute charging interest on interest.	W. Va. Code Ann. § 31-17-8(m)(4)
		Third-Party Fees	Except for fees for services provided by unrelated third parties for appraisals, inspections, title searches and credit reports, no application fee may be allowed whether or not the mortgage loan is consummated. However, the borrower may be required to reimburse the licensee for actual expenses incurred by the licensee in a purchase money transaction after acceptance and approval of a mortgage loan proposal made in accordance with the provisions of this article which is not consummated because of the borrower's: (1) willful failure to close the loan; or (2) false or fraudulent representation of a material fact which prevents closing of the loan as proposed. In addition to the sales finance charge or loan finance charge permitted by this chapter, a lender may contract for and receive the following additional charges in connection with a consumer credit sale or a consumer loan: (1) official fees and taxes; (2) charges for insurance; (3) charges for other benefits, including insurance, conferred on the consumer, if the benefits are of value to him or her and if the charges are reasonable in relation to the benefits, are of a type which is not for credit, and are excluded as permissible additional charges from the sales finance charge or loan finance charge by rule adopted by the commissioner: Provided, that as to insurance, the policy as distinguished from a certificate of coverage there under may only be issued by an individual licensed under the laws of this state to sell the insurance and the determination of whether the charges therefore are reasonable in relation to the benefits shall be determined by the insurance commissioner of this state; (4) reasonable closing costs which include: (a) fees or premiums for title examination, title insurance or similar purposes including surveys; (b) fees for preparation of a deed, deed of trust, mortgage, settlement statement or other documents; (c) escrows for future payments of taxes and insurance; (d) official fees and fees for notarizing deeds and other documents; (e) appraisal fees; and (f) credit reports; and (5) documentary charge or any other similar charge for documentary services in relation to securing a title, so long as said charge is applied equally to cash customers and credit customers alike and so long as such documentary charge does not exceed $50.
